It is understood that several very interesting papers are being prepared.

This Bollaire Independent has the following: Exery body who attended the colored ball has night clid not have a good time. Jim Murray, a Wheeling coon, was there, and a woman who says she is his wife received a cut on the left side of the face, the result of which was to have both of them locked up. Murray was bound over to Court in the sum of $300 for cutting with intent to wound, and the woman, who gives her name as Mattle Murray, was locked up on a charge of fornication. This because Murray says that she is not his wife, and that they are not married. Burney Brown, another colored dahap from Wheeling, was locked up for being disorderly. The Mayor fined him $5 and costs, $5 10 in gil, which he paid, and as he made tracks for Wheeling he was heard to muttar, "Dear damned, distracted town, farewell," The man and woman now in the lockup are said to belong to a faucy house kept by a white woman in East Wheeling. It is probable that both will go to the $K$, clairsville jail.

THE MILLIGAN CASE. The Alleged Murderer of Frank Davis

The Alleged Martherecol Frank Davis on the Wilzes Stand.

The trial of Wilbur Milligan for the murder of Frank Davis, was continued in Judge Boyd's Court yesterday, and the testimony concluded last evening. The argument will be heard to-day, sind the case probably go to the jury this evening. The prosecution attempted to establish malice, and to set up the theory that Milligan had purchased the pistol for the purpose of shooting Davis. Milligan was put on the stand just before the pistol for the purpose of shooting Davis. Milligan was put on the stand just before the pistol for the purpose of shooting Davis. Milligan was put on the stand just before the recess last ovening, and told the story of the shooting and of all the occurrences of the evening on which it happened, very circumstantially. He said that he came over to the city with no intention of going to the idance at McLalu's hall. He went first to Genther's pinety-nine cent store, where he looked at some revolvers.
